Zathomasious "Tiko" Jones

Horn Lake Class of 2017

Zathomasious "Tiko" Jones, male alto, from Horn Lake, Mississippi, has been singing since the age of 12 when he joined the 6th Grade Choir at Horn Lake Middle School. Zathomasious recently graduated from Delta State University with a Bachelors degree (BA) in Vocal Performance. During his time at DSU, Zathomasious has performed a junior & senior recital as part of his degree program. In 2019 he had the opportunity to be a featured soloist in a local performance of Vivaldi's "Gloria" including a live Baroque orchestra. He has also competed in the Mississippi division of NATS (National Association of Teachers in Singing) where he placed first in the Arts Song division & third in the Spiritual division. Most recently, Zathomasious performed as the alto soloist for Handel's "Messiah". His future plans are to continue his training in the graduate program at the University of Mississippi this coming Fall.

Please help us as we practice appropriate concert etiquette during tonight's concert.

Each performer should have the opportunity to have the audience's full attention!

- enter/exit between songs
- show your appreciation with applause, but only after the conductor lowers his/her arms
- remain for the entire concert
- refrain from talking during a performance
- no food or drink
- refrain from flash photos during a performance
