

Top 10 reasons students should join choir:

1. You get to be loud. If you like to talk, choir is place a where you are encouraged to use your voice to its fullest ability.
2. Friendship. More than 54 Million Americans sing in choirs, so you are sure to make new friends.
3. See the world! Many choirs go on tours to exciting places. We go on multiple trips every year.
4. Become a star. Just a few famous people who sang in choirs:

Actors- Jamie Foxx, Matt Damon, Anne Hathaway, Sandra Bullock, Hugh Jackman, Tina Fey, Brad Pitt, and Kevin Costner

Musicians- Beyonce, Justin Timberlake, Alicia Keys, John Legend, Queen Latifah, Usher, Kelly Clarkson, Pentatonix, Whitney Houston and Snoop Dogg

Athletes- Terry Bradshaw, Walter Peyton, Troy Aikman, Sugar Ray Leonard, Danica Patrick, Andy Pettitte, Marcus Allen, Joe Montana, and William "The Fridge" Perry

Politicians- President Barrack Obama, President George H.W. Bush, President Theodore Roosevelt and President Franklin Roosevelt and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

5. Bring home A's. Research shows that choir students generally earn better grades.
6. Make your college application shine. Admission folks will love to see that you are involved in extracurricular activities, especially an activity like choir, which develops teamwork skills, leadership, and self-discipline. You can get paid to make music.
7. It's good for your health. Studies have shown that choir can improve your brain activity and health! It can increase your memory, focus, math skills, and your abilities to multi-task.
8. Back rubs. Yep...they are part of the rehearsal warm-up.
9. No schlepping. Singing does not require heavy textbooks or equipment. All you need is you voice.
10. Bragging Rights. Not everyone can say they have been in the spotlight, but you will because singing in choir gives you the opportunity to be on stage! You can share your talents and develop your talents.

